Professional Experience

Elizabeth Watson Brown joined Architectus as a Design Principal in 2011 after 21 years directing Elizabeth Watson Brown Architects, a practice highly regarded for exemplary place responsive and socially responsible design. Elizabeth's work has been published widely and has received many significant architectural awards.

Elizabeth is an active participant in architectural and urban design discourse in many roles, including as an inaugural member of the Queensland Board for Urban Places and as Adjunct Professor of Architecture at the University of Queensland. Elizabeth is a Life Fellow of the Australian Institute of Architects and has been Queensland State Awards Director and National Awards Juror, as well as many design jury roles including jury chair of the Gold Coast Urban Design Awards.

The work of Elizabeth Watson Brown has been published and exhibited widely including in the seminal 'Place Makers' exhibition at the Gallery of Modern Art and at the Venice Biennale.

Elizabeth brings to Architectus long term expertise and recognition in the delivery of high quality residential, institutional, educational and community architecture, and a deep understanding of the role of architecture and urban design in the relationship between human amenity, landscape and climate in our subtropical and tropical urban realms.
